Bill from the Ministry of Education

Knowledge in collaboration - for society's challenges and strengthened competitiveness

Prop. 2016/17: 50

Published November 28, 2016

In the bill, the government presents its view of the direction of research policy in a ten-year perspective, with a special focus on investments in 2017–2020. The aim is for Sweden to be a leading nation of knowledge and one of the world's foremost research and innovation countries.

SciFree Dynamica: Researchers' Dashboard

The dashboard is displayed on a laptop screen. At the top left, the text 'DBG' is visible. The top right navigation bar includes icons for 'Reviews', 'Authoring', and 'Reading', along with a 'HELP CENTER' link and a user profile icon for 'abeni.wickham@g...'. A dark teal banner at the top of the dashboard area reads 'Welcome to SciFree, Abeni Wickham (Combo)'. Below this, the dashboard is divided into three main sections. The first section, 'Your Suggested Reading List (β)', contains a list of five article titles with a 'SHOW MORE' link at the bottom. The second section, 'Your Reviewing', is a table with three columns: 'Title', 'Review State', and 'Manuscript State'. It lists three items, all with a 'Suggested' review state and 'UnderReview' manuscript state, and includes a 'SHOW MORE' link. The third section, 'Authored manuscripts', features a 'CREATE NEW MANUSCRIPT' button and a table with four columns: 'Title', 'SciFree process', 'Manuscript State', and 'Document Extraction State'. It shows two manuscripts: one in 'Reviewing, WaitingForReviews' state and another in 'Published' state.

Why are we leaving Academia?

Being in academia can feel like a part of our identity and the pain of leaving may feel akin to losing a part of ourself. So why then are there more and more researchers choosing to make the transition out of academia?
